

National Cheng Kung University Library Guidelines for the Management of Venue Space of the Library

Approved by Library Committee on March 24, 2023

Revised by Library Committee on March 26, 2024

Revised by Library Committee on May 8, 2024

1. The National Cheng Kung University Library (hereinafter referred to as the Library) has established these guidelines for the effective utilization and management of the venue space managed by the Library (hereinafter referred to as the venue space) in accordance with the “National Cheng Kung University Meeting Site Regulations”.
2. The areas of the venue space are as follows:
 - (1) Outdoor spaces of the main library
 1. Corridor and outdoor square on the first floor
 2. Outdoor grass square on the first floor
 3. Outdoor square and gallery corridor on the first basement level
 - (2) Indoor spaces in the main library
 1. Lobby on the first floor
 2. Multifunctional Area on the east side of the first floor
 3. SPARK on the first floor
 4. LibRE on the first floor
 5. Training Room on the third floor
 6. Atrium on the fourth floor
 7. Conference Center on the first basement level
 8. Art Gallery on the first basement level
 9. Auditorium on the first basement level
 - (3) Discussion and Interaction Areas on the first floor of the KnowLEDGE
3. The venue space is available for teaching, academic, artistic, literature and arts, and assembly related events.
4. The Library shall be given priority in the use of this venue space in principle. This venue space is also available for borrowing by on-campus units and clubs or by off-campus units and organizations.

The venue space is only available for borrowing during the opening hours of the Library, and is not available for borrowing on days when the Library is closed. However, if there are special needs, those in need may apply to the University Librarian for approval.
5. Procedures for applying to borrow the venue space:

- (1) To apply for the use of the venue space, the borrowing unit should fill out a venue application form in the University's e-Administration system. Please read the rules and regulations of the venue in question and submit the event plan and other related documents to apply to the Library.
 - (2) If a student club of the University applies for the use of the venue space, it should submit a letter of approval from the Office of Student Affairs or an event plan, and the same applies to changes.
 - (3) Those who borrow the venue space for photography or filming should fill out the Venue Filming/Photography Application Form and comply with the relevant regulations of the "Guidelines for the Management of Filming or Photography Applications in the Library".
 - (4) Applicants who wish to borrow the venue space should submit their applications two weeks to two months before the scheduled borrowing date. However, for international conferences, seminars, performances or special needs, applications can be submitted six months in advance.
 - (5) Applicants who apply for the use of the venue space should pay the full usage fee at least seven days prior to the date of use, or they will be deemed to have given up the borrowing.
6. The usage fee for the use of the venue space is as shown in the annexed table, and the incomes and expenditures are managed according to the "National Cheng Kung University Site Facility Fee Directions" of the University.
- There is no charge for the borrowing of the venue space by units, faculty, staff, or clubs of the University in principle. However, if a fee is charged to the participants or the borrowing unit receives external funding or subsidy, a usage fee for the venue space will be charged.
- Approval from the Office of Student Affairs shall be obtained if the student clubs of the University wish to use the venue space for event. Applications for subsidies related to the use of venue space shall be handled in accordance with the "National Cheng Kung University Student Autonomous Organizations and Student Clubs Fundings for Campus Venues Implementation Plan".
7. If the Library has an urgent need to use the reserved venue space, it may notify the borrowing unit at least 7 days prior to the reserved date to cancel the use and coordinate to re-schedule a later date and time. The Library shall refund the venue space usage fee paid by the borrowing unit without interest, and the Applicant may not seek any other compensation or reimbursements.
 8. The borrowing units may apply to the Library for a postponement or a refund 7 days prior to the reserved date. If the borrowing unit fails to apply for a postponement or a refund within the deadline, the Library may refuse the request. However, the above shall not apply in the event of natural disasters or force majeure that prevents the borrowing unit's use of the venue space.
 9. The borrowing units should comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The borrowing unit should designate a person on the site to liaise with the venue manager of the Library.
 - (2) The borrowing unit shall be responsible for the safety of the event staff and the maintenance of the venue space in a clean and orderly manner to avoid disturbing others, and shall not ask the Library to perform any tasks unrelated to the use of the venue. After using the venue space, the borrowing unit should clean the environment and restore the venue to its original state. Please take care of the facilities and equipment of the venue. In the event of damage to equipment, building, or facilities, the borrowing unit shall be liable for damages.
 - (3) Any equipment or services not provided by the Library shall be prepared by the borrowing unit with the consent of the Library. The borrowing unit shall be responsible for the custody of its own equipment or devices.
 - (4) The borrowing units should pay attention to the safety of electricity use. If a large amount or special type of electricity is required, they should first contact the Library's electrical and mechanical personnel for confirmation and should not connect the power without permission. Do not move or set up equipment and devices without permission. If the materials or facilities are damaged due to improper use, they shall be handled in accordance with the "National Cheng Kung University Library Rules for Reader Violations".
 - (5) Posters, marks, flags, banners posted or hung for the events must be approved by the Library in advance and should be removed immediately after the events. Items not removed in time will be deemed as waste and the related processing cost will be borne by the borrowing unit.
 - (6) Vehicles carrying equipment or items into the University or the Library before and after the event should be parked at the designated locations and driven away immediately after loading and unloading. Violators will be dealt with in accordance with the "Regulations on the Control of Vehicles Driving on Campus at National Cheng Kung University".
 - (7) The use of venue space by the borrowing units should not exceed the booked period. In case of special circumstances and with the consent of the Library, the usage time may be extended and fees will be charged in accordance with these guidelines.
 - (8) If the borrowing unit needs to play self-prepared audio-visual materials or install computer software, it should inform the Library in advance and comply with the relevant intellectual property rights regulations. Use of the Library's computers is subject to the "National Cheng Kung University Library Guidelines for Use of Electronic Resources".
10. In the event of any of the follow circumstances, the Library may immediately suspend the use of its premises by the borrowing unit, and the fees paid will not be refunded. Such borrowing units will be disqualified from filing applications for one year from the date of the violation. For serious cases, the Library may report to the University or take legal actions in accordance with the law:

- (1) Unauthorized use of the venue without application for approval
 - (2) Renting or lending the venue to other units without permission
 - (3) The actual events are not consistent with those stated in the application
 - (4) Units from outside the University apply for the use of the venue space in the name of the University's units or student clubs with the intention of circumventing or reducing the usage fee
 - (5) Unauthorized connection of power lines or changes in power circuit configuration, or use of overloading electrical equipment
 - (6) The volume of the event has affected the readers or the surrounding educational administrative units and no improvement is made after persuasion
 - (7) Intentionally destroy public property or facilities
 - (8) Bringing explosives, dangerous objects, and contraband into the venues
 - (9) Violating the University's rules, government regulations, public order, or good morals
 - (10) Other illegal acts
11. Matters not covered herein shall be handled in accordance with the relevant regulations of the University.
 12. These guidelines will be in effect after approval by the Library Committee, and the same applies to amendments.
